

Mr. Riteman receiving the Order of Nova Scotia , 2009

Tuesday, November 5th: Guest speaker and Holocaust survivor Philip Riteman was born in Poland. He was originally detained in Auschwitz, and then went on to several other concentration camps including Dachau. After Mr. Riteman was liberated by the Americans, he immigrated to Newfoundland. He currently lives in Halifax, Nova Scotia, and frequently speaks about his personal experience during the Holocaust. His biography, Millions of Souls, was recently published by Flanker Press.

Tuesday, November 5th : 7:00 PM

Exhibit: Names Instead of Numbers

My Personal Testimony: Philip Riteman, Holocaust survivor

Reception to follow.

Names Instead of Numbers showcases a selection of twenty-two biographies from the Dachau Remembrance Book Project (a collection of life stories of former Dachau camp prisoners). The exhibition has been shown in five languages and displayed in Germany, France, the Netherlands, Austria, Great Britain, Poland, USA and Canada. The exhibit brings to light a more personal side of the Holocaust's horrors and honours the memories of the people, families and communities lost.

7:00 PM | Location: Halifax TBA

October 27 | 7:00 PM | Head of Jeddore | Marine Drive Pentecostal Church
8970 Hwy 7

October 29-30 | 10:00 AM – 5:00 PM | Musquodoboit Harbour
Old School Community Gathering Place | 7962 Hwy 7

This exhibit will be travelling to schools across the province. If you are interested in hosting this exhibit please contact Edna LeVine, Director of Community Engagement, Atlantic Jewish Council: elevine@theajc.ns.ca or 422-7491 ext. 221.