A message from Naomi, Yoram and the AJC Board of Directors

We are delighted to present the AJC 2025-2026 New Year Calendar, a special tribute to the 50th anniversary of the Atlantic Jewish Council, a significant milestone in our community's history.

Since its founding in 1975, the AJC has been dedicated to building and strengthening Jewish life across our region. We achieve this by fostering a strong Jewish identity, offering meaningful programs, providing leadership development opportunities, supporting Holocaust education, assisting those in need, and engaging in outreach and advocacy within the broader community.

The Jewish community in Atlantic Canada dates to the 18th century, when early settlers arrived in ports such as Halifax and Saint John. Over time, the community has grown and flourished. Synagogues and community organizations have played a central role in Jewish life, and the AJC has proudly represented Jews in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, and Newfoundland.

Times are now difficult for Jewry across the globe. But now is not the time to hide our Jewishness and our Zionism. There has never been a time when Jews have not contributed to the world, in science, the arts, law, medicine, architecture, philosophy, music, politics and every other area of endeavour. Those Jews who rose out of the ashes of the Holocaust and the killings of the pogroms created a world in which we, as their descendants, flourish. We owe them an obligation to be proud of what they survived and what they accomplished. That debt can only be paid by never letting the world forget what our contributions have been and what future contributions we will make.

The AJC has been the guardian of our heritage, tirelessly promoting, encouraging, and publicizing the rich tapestry of Jewish culture. Our efforts have not only preserved our traditions but also formed strong bonds with our non-Jewish friends and neighbours, as well as with various organizations, educators, and governments.

Fifty years of service to Jewish life in Atlantic Canada is a remarkable achievement. The Atlantic Jewish community has made a meaningful contribution to the cultural, social, and economic fabric of our region. This year's calendar is a testament to the dedication of the AJC team. We extend our heartfelt thanks to the AJC team, who worked diligently to create the calendar. The team has meticulously verified every detail, from candle lighting times to Jewish holidays and Yahrzeit dates. Your feedback is invaluable to us. If you spot any errors or omissions, please notify us so we can make the necessary corrections for next year's calendar.

We wish you and your family שנה טובה ומתוקה — a good and sweet year, and גמר חתימה טובה a good sealing in the Book of Life. May 2025-2026 (5786) be a year filled with happiness, health, success, and meaning.

May HaShem bless the IDF, Israel's intelligence and security services, all first responders, the people of Israel, and the global Jewish community

Am Yisrael Chai!

Thank you for your continued support and dedication to the AJC. Your contributions are integral to our community's success.

History

Atlantic Jewish Council Founded
Over seventy attending Founding Convention April 20, 1975

Canadian Zionist Federation Chairman of the Executive Board, Mrs. Neri Bloomfield, visited Halifax recently to discuss with Annette Szwed, Chairperson, Kail DeMunnas Organizing Committee and B'nai B'rith members, Division of the Nova Scotia Hearing and Speech Clinic plans for a major cultural event to be presented in Halifax either late in 1981 or in the spring of 1982. Mrs. Bloomfield was the guest at a luncheon sponsored by Annette Szwed for committee members of the Kail DeMunnas Organizing Committee.

I have become aware that many people living in Atlantic Jewish Council. I hope to help clear up some of the questions that you may have. I should like to quote from the Constitution of the Atlantic Jewish Council. "The object of this Council shall be to promote and maintain the quality of Jewish life in the Atlantic Region so as to help perpetuate Jewish life in the Atlantic Region. In addition the Council seeks to provide:

- a) Cultural, Religious, Educational and Social activities of a Jewish and Zionist nature in the Region.
- b) Coordination and scheduling of all Jewish fund raising activities conducted in the Region by members of the Council.
- c) The continuation of Camp Kadimah
- d) The services of professional staff and the facilities in the form of secretarial and clerical staff, Offices and Administration of Regional Headquarters.
- e) The framework in which local Community Councils may be established.

As you can see the mission of the Atlantic Jewish Council is great.

Along with the celebration of the 25th anniversary of Shaar Shalom Congregation, Halifax, the Hebrew School of that congregation is also celebrating twenty-five years of education and activity.

The original classes were held at the home of Sophie Stern on Connaught Avenue in 1953 and, for several years different members of the Congregation opened their homes to the school for the celebration of different Jewish holidays such as Chanukah and Purim. Shown below are pictures of a Chanukah Party held at Max Pascal's home on Beech Street in 1953 and at the home of Morris Goldberg on Armview Terrace in 1953. In both cases, the teacher was Zipporah Jacobs, wife of Rabbi David Jacobs.

At present the religious school of Shaar Shalom consists of six grades and some sixty students, as compared to the initial enrolment in 1953 of some thirty children. The school provides classes from Primary to Grade IV, for the pre-Bar/Bat Mizvah students and a post Bar/Bat Mizvah High School class. The religious educational needs of students aged 5 to 16 plus are provided for by this school at this time. Photographs taken at the school in March of 1978 show some of the students with teacher, Annette Wolk and Rabbi Lavi Haim.

Pre School News

The Atlantic Jewish Council Pre School is now entering its fourth month of operation. The children are having a great time learning and discovering. Parents are enthusiastic and the prospects look positive for next year. There is always the hectic end of the year activity as the children discover themselves and the world around them. For information on how your child can become part of this please give the Atlantic Jewish Council a call. Unfortunately the Pre School is only serving those children in the Halifax, Dartmouth area. Our next addition will be in Moncton. The parents there are already busily involved in getting everything together. Any parent interested in Moncton is urged to contact: Cookie Greenberg.
